

I am against any cable or phone company being able to have complete control over Internet Access. I believe everyone should be allowed their basic right to choose an ISP of their choice. So please turn down the Petition.